

FENCES

To submit an application for a fence, you need factual evidence where your property lines are. A property survey by a professional land surveyor may be required if there are no boundary markers on your property. All fences shall be constructed with the finished side facing outward and shall be no more than seven feet in height from the existing grade on both sides of the proposed fence.